Eligibility

COVID-19 concessions

Skilled-Recognised Graduate (subclass 476) visa holders affected by COVID-19 international travel restrictions may be eligible for a visa extension.

This will allow eligible Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa holders to enter or remain in Australia until 14 April 2024.

To be eligible for a visa extension you must:

- currently hold or have held a Skilled-Recognised Graduate (subclass 476) visa granted before 14 December 2021 and expiring on or after 1 February 2020
- have been outside Australia at any time between 1 February 2020 and 14 December 2021 while holding a Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa
- not have had your visa cancelled.

If you currently hold a Bridging visa and you are granted a visa extension, the Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa will come into effect.

If you have made an application for another substantive visa you may wish to consider whether you want to continue with that application. If you do not want to continue with your application you have 28 days to withdraw \(/change-in-situation/withdraw-visa-application\).

If you were granted a substantive visa before your Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa extension was granted the Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa will remain out of effect until the substantive visa ceases.

If the substantive visa ceases before 14 April 2024 the Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa will come into effect for the remaining period.

If you are granted a substantive visa after your Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa is extended this will cease the Skilled-Recognised Graduate visa permanently.

You can check your visa status using VEVO \(/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions/check-conditions-online/visa-holders\)*
